NADENE ROGERS

Nadene was born and raised in Toronto and made Calgary her home in 1981. She has shared keynotes and led seminars for businesses, educational institutions and not for profit organizations dedicated to the well being & creative expression of the human spirit for the past 30 years. Infamous as her alter ego: Lovable Louie the Clown, Nadene birthed Canada's first Clown School in 1987 and produced/toured a one woman/clown show in Western Canada called "Project Crossroad" reflecting her transformative journey through the lighter side of a serious subject - substance abuse. Entering ministry in 1997 she served as a youth minister and founding executive director of the "Teens of Distinction Society". Presently an ordained minister and Spiritual Director of the Calgary JOY of Life Centre for Spiritual Living, Nadene teaches the principles of New Thought and invites you to JOYfully embrace your humanity, trusting that you are already a perfect expression of the Truth you seek to know.
